ABOUT ROCHDALE TOWN HALL & THE MARTLET KITCHEN

ROCHDALE TOWN HALL

Designed by William Henry Crossland and built between the years 1866 and 1871, Rochdale Town Hall is a glorious Gothic Revival style building.

Since January 2021, dedicated teams have been working hard to return this stunning, Grade I listed building to its former glory.

Beautiful features including vibrant stained-glass windows, sophisticated wood panelling and traditional 18th century stonework have all been restored.

The newly restored town hall hosts a myriad of events, from festivals to markets, private bookings to special tours.

THE MARTLET KITCHEN

The restaurant, which opened in 2024, has been named "The Martlet Kitchen", after a mythical bird which appears in imagery throughout the Town Hall.

The mythical bird with no feet, never roosts from the moment of birth until its final fall. Martlets are proposed to be continuously on the wing and ever in flight.

Executive Chef Darren Parkinson and his team serve up an array of tasty treats suitable for everyone to enjoy.

We can host birthdays, christenings, funerals, baby showers, weddings and more! Speak to our team for more information.
